Snow Much to See 2026: the international snow, ice and cold photo contest opens for entries

From 1 to 30 November 2026, 11:59 pm (Paris). Results on 21 December 2026. Winners exhibited at the Images & Neige festival, Cluses, 22–24 January 2027.

The facts

Snow Much to See, international snow, ice and cold photo contest, 2nd edition (2026). Applications from 1 to 30 November 2026, 11:59 pm (Paris). Results on 21 December 2026.

Ethical contest: 2 free photos, anonymous judging. €0: 2 photos · €5: up to 9 photos, 6 of them free · €25: 31 photos, portfolio review included. 11 categories.

7 winners exhibited at the Images & Neige festival, Cluses, 22–24 January 2027; prints produced and framed by us; catalogue with the jury's written analysis.

2025: 1st edition, photographers of 24 nationalities, 10 images per entry on average, 1 entry in 4 submitted on the last day; winners awarded at the Sony World Photography Awards and at Visa pour l'Image.

An ethical contest

2 free photos for every entrant, anonymous judging (the jury sees neither name nor signature), winners' prints produced and framed by the organisation, physical exhibition at a recognised festival. 11 categories, 1 single-image prize and 1 series prize in each.

How to enter

On imagora, the entry platform, from snowmuchtosee.com. Fees: €0 for 2 photos; €5, €10, €15 or €25 depending on the number of photos; €25: 31 photos, portfolio review included.

Press contact: "Press and media" form · Press room (logos, winners' photos, social media kit) · Photos: author's name required, no cropping.